

Year: 2008

Vol.: 72

Fasc.: 1-2

Title: Jordan loops and loop rings

Author(s): Edgar G. Goodaire and Rebecca G. Keeping

Jordan loop rings can exist only in characteristics not relatively prime to 6. In this paper, we show they exist in characteristic 2, give a number of examples of loops with Jordan loop rings and initiate a study of Jordan loops, a class of loops which has hitherto been largely ignored, perhaps for good reason.

Address:

Edgar G. Goodaire
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John's, Newfoundland
Canada A1C 5S7
E-mail: edgar@math.mun.ca

Address:

Rebecca G. Keeping
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John's, Newfoundland
Canada A1C 5S7
E-mail: rkeeping@math.mun.ca