

A bound for the matching distance between eigenvalues of matrices

By MICHAEL GIL' (Beer-Sheva)

Abstract. We derive a new bound for the matching optimal distance between eigenvalues of two matrices in terms of the spectral and Hilbert–Schmidt (Frobenius) norms. In the appropriate situations our results are considerably sharper than the well-known bounds.

MICHAEL GIL'
DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS
BEN GURION UNIVERSITY OF THE NEGEV
P. O. BOX 653
BEER-SHEVA 84105
ISRAEL